FINANCIAL NEWS AND COMMENT

Active Stock Issues Close Under Lower Pressure, With Few Redeeming Features.

MONEY MARKET IS FIRM

Due to Banks Finishing Payment for Last Offering of Treasury Certificates.

Fluctuations in yesterday's market on the Stock Exchange were of little significance from any viewpoint.

The most important news which developed overnight to effect the course of the market was the passage of the road bill by the House.

Trading was quiet at all stages of the session that little attention was paid to the money market, which continued to be extremely firm.

The strongest spots in the market were stocks representing companies which had announced their earnings.

Receipts for duties at the Custom House yesterday were $285,808.29.
